In Search of a Meal Site Chaplain

We are looking for a special person or team of people to fill a void that is needed at the Meal Site on Saturdays. The Meal Site needs a chaplain. This is a role that has been deeply missed since the death of Jim Prather.

Who: A caring individual who is willing to listen and pray with people in need.

What: You don't need to cook, wash a dish, or mop the floor. You need only be a regular presence in the dining hall. You can help people to their table, talk to people, or simply be a non-anxious presence in the room.

When: A regular commitment is needed. It does not have to be every Saturday, but at least once a month is needed to cultivate a relationship with our guests.

How: Pastor Robb will train you. You will meet with him several times to talk about this role and he will go with you to Meal Site for a couple of Saturdays to model this role for you.

I am interested in learning more about becoming a Meal Site Chaplain.

March 10, 2019 Announcements

We are blessed by your presence, and pray that worship is meaningful for you. All are invited to remain after worship and enjoy some coffee and refreshments in the back of the sanctuary. You are invited to note your attendance and mailing address on the blue attendance tear-off sheet found in each bulletin. This sheet may be placed in the offering plate during offertory. We encourage family participation in worship. We offer activity bags for children as well as a PRAYground area towards the front of the sanctuary specially designed for young worshipers; please see an usher for more information. If desired, an adult-staffed nursery for children up to 5 years old is located in room 208. Ushers can also provide you with large print bulletins if needed. We extend a special welcome to you and trust you will experience God's presence today.

Nebraska Wesleyan Band Concert This afternoon the NWU Band will be holding a free concert here at Two Rivers at 2pm. In addition, the church will provide a potluck dinner after the concert at 5:00 p.m. Please bring a dish to pass, and join us in fellowship with the Band.

Lenten Concert Series and Bible Study Bret Dale and Friends of the River Music Experience will be at Two Rivers on Wed. March 13 at 12:15pm. This is the first of six amazing concerts in the 28th Annual Lenten Concert Series. They will share blues, folk, and roots rock and roll music. All Lenten Concert Series events are free admission. Fifteen minutes after the concert, Pastor Robb will lead a Bible study based on Adam Hamilton's book "Final Words: From the Cross."

Lenten Studies During the Lenten season we will have two different studies for people to participate in on Sundays and Mondays. The Adult Sunday Class will begin a study, DATELINE: JERUSALEM which was created by Rev. John Crede who will also be the lead teacher for the series. Each Sunday they will explore one day during Holy Week starting with Palm Sunday and ending with Easter Sunday. Pastor Robb will lead a study of World Religions. This will be an intergenerational group. It will include youth and adults and meet in the Youth Sunday School room on Sundays at 10:45am. If you cannot make it to the Sunday school class, the same topic will be covered at the Monday Lunch and Learn group at noon.

UMM Dinner & Program After a winter break the Methodist Men will be starting their monthly dinner meetings again. The dinner meeting will take place on Tuesday, March 12, dinner is at 6:00 p.m. with the price of $9.00 person. After dinner a program entitled, 'The 1-80 Zone Program' will be given. A short business meeting will follow. Please call Jerry Etzel 764-5837 with your reservation by Monday, March 11. Everyone is welcome, so come and join us for good food and fellowship.

St. Patrick's Day Celebration St. Patrick's Day is March 17th and the Two Rivers Evangelism Team is inviting all to a grand St. Patrick's Day Celebration down in Epworth Hall after service from 11—12:30pm There will be live music, fun activities and a free corn beef and cabbage lunch served. Feel free to invite family and friends to this wonderful celebration of St. Patrick.

GATHERING OF THE PEOPLE

Prelude

Greeting

(part of the Breastplate of Saint Patrick)

One: I arise today through the strength of heaven,

All: The light of the sun, the radiance of the moon,

One: The splendor of fire, the speed of lightning,

All: The swiftness of wind, the depth of the sea,

One: The stability of the earth, the firmness of rock.

All: I arise today through God's strength.

*Opening Praise

" Morning Has Broken"

145 UMH

*Celtic Prayer of Confession

One: We are the people who fashion crosses of wood. We are the people who strike with hammers. We are the people who hang bodies from crosses. We are the people who seal Christ in a tomb, hoping that would be the end of Christ's mission and love.

All: I am sorry, God, for failing Christ still. I am sorry for denying Christ's love. I am sorry for ignoring the cry of the needy and walking past the hurting. I am sorry for pushing the marginalized to the side and for enjoying my place of comfort and privilege. Stir in me a new heart. May this Lenten journey be one of repentance, and empower us all to rise from the Ashes to the sure and certain hope of Resurrection.

One: In the name of Christ crucified and in the name of Christ risen.

All: We are dead to sin and rise in Love. Glory to God. Amen.

*Passing of the Peace

Prayer Hymn "Abide with Me" vs 3 700 UMH

Pastoral Prayer and Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

Prayer for Illumination

All: Gracious God, open our hearts to the story of your love. Open our minds to new ways of knowing you. Open our doors to all whom you would welcome. Amen.

Scripture Reading Luke 8:4-8 CEB

When a great crowd was gathering and people were coming to Jesus from one city after another, he spoke to them in a parable: "A farmer went out to scatter his seed. As he was scattering it, some fell on the path where it was crushed, and the birds in the sky came and ate it. Other seed fell on rock. As it grew, it dried up because it had no moisture. Other seed fell among thorny plants. The thorns grew with the plants and choked them. Still other seed landed on good soil. When it grew, it produced one hundred times more grain than was scattered." As he said this, he called out, "Everyone who has ears should pay attention."

One: The word of God. For the people of God.

All: Thanks be to God.

Children's Message – "My Song is Love Unknown" vs. 1 - See Screens (All children are invited to the front.)

Sermon "The Good Soil of Ireland" - Rev. Robb McCoy

RESPONSE AND THANKSGIVING

Response in Song "Thou That Madest Earth and Heaven" 688 UMH

Offering

*Doxology 94 UMH

*Celtic Prayer of Thanksgiving (from the Carmina Gadelica)

All: Thanks to thee, O God, that I have risen today. To the rising of this life itself; May it be to Thine own glory. O God of every gift, And to the glory of my soul likewise. O Great God, aid Thou my soul with the aiding of thine own mercy. Even as I clothe my body with wool, cover thou my soul with the shadow of thy wing. Help me to avoid every sin, and the source of every sin to forsake; and as the mist scatters on the crest of the hills, May each ill haze clear from my soul, O God.

*Blessing

*Postlude

Special note of thanks:

We would like to sincerely thank the Nebraska Wesleyan Concert Band for joining us this morning and sharing with us their beautiful music.

* You are invited to stand as you are able.
