Third Sunday after Pentecost

John 21:1-14 (CEB)

Later, Jesus himself appeared again to his disciples at the Sea of Tiberias. This is how it happened: Simon Peter, Thomas (called Didymus), Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, Zebedee's sons, and two other disciples were together. Simon Peter told them, "I'm going fishing."

They said, "We'll go with you." They set out in a boat, but throughout the night they caught nothing. Early in the morning, Jesus stood on the shore, but the disciples didn't realize it was Jesus.

Jesus called to them, "Children, have you caught anything to eat?"

They answered him, "No."

He said, "Cast your net on the right side of the boat and you will find some."

So they did, and there were so many fish that they couldn't haul in the net. Then the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It's the Lord!" When Simon Peter heard it was the Lord, he wrapped his coat around himself (for he was naked) and jumped into the water. The other disciples followed in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they weren't far from shore, only about one hundred yards.

When they landed, they saw a fire there, with fish on it, and some bread. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish that you've just caught." Simon Peter got up and pulled the net to shore. It was full of large fish, one hundred fifty-three of them. Yet the net hadn't torn, even with so many fish. Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." None of the disciples could bring themselves to ask him, "Who are you?" They knew it was the Lord. Jesus came, took the bread, and gave it to them. He did the same with the fish. This was now the third time Jesus appeared to his disciples after he was raised from the dead.

GATHERING OF THE PEOPLE

Prelude "I Will Lift Up Your Name" - Tomaszek

Greeting

2022 Annual Conference Report given by Charlotte Peterson

*Opening Hymn #133 UMH "Leaning on the Everlasting Arms" vs. 1&3

*Prayer of Confession

All: Holy and gracious God, we seek shelter in your love. We have weathered so many storms. We recognize our own contribution to our troubles through poor choices and selfish ways. There are, however, so many problems that exist in our society for which we have no control. Forgive us for the storms we create in our own lives and forgive us as a people for the storms of oppression that continue to torment us. Help us to navigate all the storms of life, that we may be safe and secure in you.

(Pause for silent reflection and confession)

One: Hear the good news, Jesus is the Lord of the sea and the storm. If we remain in him, we will find still waters. In the name of Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

All: In the name of Jesus Christ, the one who calms the storm, we are forgiven. Amen.

*Passing of the Peace

Spirit Hymn #358 UMH "Dear Lord and Father of Mankind" vs. 1

Pastoral Prayer and Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
