Reflections on this week's story of Jesus lost in the Temple.

- ◇ What does this story tell us about Jesus? What does it tell us about his early family?
- ◇ We don't really know much about Jesus' childhood, so we are left with a lot of room to imagine. What was he like growing up? How much did he know? Are there stories, books, movies, that you've enjoyed that helped fill in these blanks?

Questions to ask while reading this week's readings

- ◇ Isaiah 60 describes a future for Israel that is glorious. What kinds of imagery help paint this picture? How does it feel to read this chapter through the lens of today's headlines?

Preparing for next Sunday

- ◇ Why did Mary ask Jesus to turn water into wine? Was she the catalyst for him to begin his public ministry?
