From the beginning of the Jesus movement, followers of Christ declared that there is no Jew or Greek, no slave or free, nor is there male and female. We, the people of Two Rivers United Methodist Church join in this movement of the Holy Spirit and declare that we celebrate the diversity of our neighborhood and the world.

We welcome and affirm people of every gender identity, gender expression, and sexual and affectional orientation, who are also of every age, race, ethnicity, physical and mental ability, level of education, family structure, and of every economic, immigration, marital, and social status, and so much more. We believe that the body of Christ is more vital in its ministry when the whole diversity of the human family may enjoy full participation and leadership in the Church.

We welcome all who have known the pain of exclusion or discrimination in the Church and society, and acknowledge the pain caused by the history of exclusionary policies of the United Methodist Church. We will continue to work toward a more inclusive Church and invite you to join us in following Jesus Christ on the Way, marked by greater hospitality, kindness, justice, peace, understanding, and mutual respect.

1 John 4:7-21

Dear friends, let’s love each other, because love is from God, and everyone who loves is born from God and knows God. The person who doesn’t love does not know God, because God is love. This is how the love of God is revealed to us: God has sent his only Son into the world so that we can live through him. This is love: it is not that we loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son as the sacrifice that deals with our sins.

Dear friends, if God loved us this way, we also ought to love each other. No one has ever seen God. If we love each other, God remains in us and his love is made perfect in us. This is how we know we remain in him and he remains in us, because he has given us a measure of his Spirit. We have seen and testify that the Father has sent the Son to be the savior of the world. If any of us confess that Jesus is God’s Son, God remains in us and we remain in God. We have known and have believed the love that God has for us.

God is love, and those who remain in love remain in God and God remains in them. This is how love has been perfected in us, so that we can have confidence on the Judgment Day, because we are exactly the same as God is in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love drives out fear, because fear expects punishment. The person who is afraid has not been made perfect in love. We love because God first loved us. Those who say, “I love God” and hate their brothers or sisters are liars. After all, those who don’t love their brothers or sisters whom they have seen can hardly love God whom they have not seen! This commandment we have from him: Those who claim to love God ought to love their brother and sister also.

GATHERING TO HEAR THE GOOD NEWS

PRELUDE “O Come All Ye Faithful” -arr. David Lanz

GREETING

*LIGHTING THE ADVENT CANDLES

One: We are waiting for Jesus
All: We are waiting with hope because we know that God’s steadfast love endures forever.
One: We are waiting for Jesus.
All: We are waiting with peace that surpasses all understanding. It is peace from knowing we are fully loved in this moment.
One: We are waiting for Jesus.
All: We are waiting with joy that comes from knowing God is already present and that the Kingdom of God is at hand.
One: We are waiting for Jesus.
All: We are waiting in love because Christ first loved us. Amen.

*ADVENT REFRAIN (See screens) “We are Waiting for Jesus”

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION

All: God of Advent Love, we confess to you that in our waiting, we are not always loving. We are impatient with others, quick to anger or frustration. We are unkind to ourselves, dwelling on our faults and failures. We are comfortable in a world that is unloving, unjust, and unwilling to care for people. We are waiting for Jesus even as we ignore his command to love each other as he first loved us. Forgive us for forgetting the reason we wait - to fulfill a promise of love that is made to all people.

Pause for silent confession and reflection

One: Hear the good news: We do not have to wait for Jesus’ love until Christmas morning. Forgiveness is a gift that we may open today.
All: We love because Christ first loved us, in the name of Jesus Christ, we are forgiven and loved. Amen.

INVITATION TO DISCIPLESHIP

*OFFERTORY #204 UMH “Emmanuel, Emmanuel” x2
All are invited to place your offering and the detached part of the bulletin in the offering basin at the front as we sing

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

We believe in hope. It is courageous and tenacious. It is a hope that remembers where we have been and what we have already overcome.
We believe in peace. It is the shalom that God intended for creation. It is not the absence of tension, but the presence of justice. It is not only in the calming of the storm. It is also in the breaking of the bread.
We believe in joy. It is the true happiness that is bigger than a momentary feeling. It is rooted in God’s Instruction and walking in God’s ways.
We believe in love. It is steadfast and endures forever. It pursues goodness and mercy. It seeks the good for others no matter the cost.
We believe in the Kingdom of God, the Coming of Christ, and the fulfillment of hope, peace, joy, and love in this life and the next. Amen.
