PASTOR ROBB'S NOTES

What has been a pretty interesting narrative now gets bogged down with a list of laws and building instructions. Some rules seem arbitrary and some make perfect sense. There is a sense of justice and order.

1 and 2 Samuel aren't actually two books, they were just too big to fit on one scroll, but the death of Saul marks an end of an era, clearing the way for David's claim to the throne.

These chapters in Acts are incredibly important. After the death of Stephen, the Holy Spirit starts to do some wild stuff.
