PASTOR ROBB'S NOTES

The Passover and David are two foundational pieces of our story. In the Torah we get into the heart of the Passover story. The plagues torment Egypt until the people are finally released and are able to cross the sea on dry land. In the Prophets, God regrets making Saul King and Samuel anoints David. Then, David defeats Goliath. Watch this David character - he becomes important.

In Luke we find the story of the Prodigal Son, some challenging teaching about money, and on Palm Sunday.
