PASTOR ROBB'S NOTES

TORAH: We follow Israel through more wilderness challenges: priestly duties, Moses' misstep, serpents, and Balaam's unexpected blessings. Even in conflict and complaint, God keeps leading them forward.

PROPHETS: The kings keep turning over quickly as Israel collapses and Judah struggles to stay faithful. Idolatry and injustice accelerate Israel's fall, while Judah begins its long, fragile fight for survival.

NEW TESTAMENT: Paul urges reconciliation, generosity, and endurance. He defends his ministry, confronts critics, and insists that God's strength is revealed in weakness as the letter nears its emotional peak.
