PASTOR ROBB'S NOTES

PROPHETS: Isaiah wraps up with a beautiful vision of the Nations coming to God. This is an inclusive message, not a story of conquest and destruction. Then we move into Jeremiah, and another major prophet, this time a young one, takes center stage.

WRITINGS: The exchange between Job and his friends becomes more impassioned and more bitter. Job staunchly defends his innocence, and his relationships break down.

NEW TESTAMENT: After going through most of the letters, we go back to the Gospel of John. It is significantly different from the other three gospels. After John, we will read the three John letters, which have a very similar feel and theme to the Gospel.
