PASTOR ROBB'S NOTES

PROPHETS: Jeremiah is arrested and sentenced to death for speaking out against the King. There is despair in Babylon, and Jeremiah advises to settle in for a long exile. But the section closes with a word of hope.

WRITINGS: Some argue that the denouement of Job undoes the theological work that the rest of the book accomplished. Some argue that the "happy ending" for Job was added by scribes who thought the book was too bleak. Ecclesiastes begins with a seeker searching for wisdom.

NEW TESTAMENT: After the letters to the churches, John's vision begins. A key to all of this is that one who can open the scroll is NOT the mighty, but instead is the lamb.
