PASTOR ROBB'S NOTES

PROPHETS: This is a real roller coaster for Jeremiah. He sees hope and restoration for Judea, but that quickly turns when people stop listening to him and he is arrested.

Eventually, the Kings try to listen, but it is too little too late and Jerusalem falls.

WRITINGS: The teacher is frustrated by the shortness and unpredictability of human life. Wealth does not prevent injustice, and the body just grows old and weak. The search for meaning is bleak and unproductive.

NEW TESTAMENT: The cosmic struggle between God and the forces of evil comes to a climax. The dragon is slain and God is able to reign over the new creation.
