PASTOR ROBB'S NOTES

PROPHETS: Ezekiel pictures Samaria and Jerusalem as unfaithful sisters. His silent grief at his wife's death becomes a sign of Jerusalem's coming fall. He then pronounces judgment on the nations, especially proud Tyre and Egypt, and still promises Israel's return.
WRITINGS: Ezra leads the people in confession and reform. Nehemiah weeps over Jerusalem's ruined walls and wins the king's blessing to rebuild. The people keep building despite threats, and Nehemiah confronts the nobles who exploit the poor.
NEW TESTAMENT: Jesus heals, feeds four thousand, and teaches that what defiles comes from the heart. After Peter's confession, he turns toward the cross and redefines greatness as service. In Jerusalem he clears the temple, praises the widow's gift, and urges his followers to stay awake.
