We are blessed by your presence, and pray that worship is meaningful for you. You are invited to note your attendance and mailing address on the blue attendance tear-off sheet found in each bulletin. This sheet may be placed in the collection bowl at the front of the sanctuary after service. We encourage family participation in worship. We can provide activity bags for children upon request. Please see an usher for more information. Ushers can also provide you with large print bulletins if needed. We extend a special welcome to you and trust you will experience God's presence today.

Sunday School Classes are on break for the summer

"We Care" Gift Bags Today is the day to deliver "We Care" gift bags to our senior members. If you would like to help with delivery, please see Judy Shryack or Avalon Gibson after the worship service.

Discussion on Inclusion and the future of the UMC All are invited to this conversation that will take place shortly after worship this morning in Fellowship Hall. This will be an open, non-judgmental, and informative discussion. We will discuss the Biblical implications of inclusion and exclusion. We will share about the current state of the denomination, and we will discuss different options for Two Rivers Church moving forward. This is intended to be the beginning of a process. No long-term decisions will be made. No declarative statements will be made. This is a chance to ask the Holy Spirit to appear and help us to articulate our visions of our young people and the dreams of our elders.

Youth Meeting at Camp Milan The Two Rivers Children and Youth will meet at Camp Milan over the summer on Wednesdays from 3:00-5:00. This year the youth group has expanded to include Trinity Lutheran Church from Moline. Youth and Family Minister Debbie Kunakey and Pastor Robb have met several times together to plan the eight week summer program. They hope that the increased size of the participating students will make it feasible to split into age groups at times while still having large group games and activities as well.

Peace w/ Justice Sunday Gifts on Peace with Justice Sunday fund programs that advocate for peace and justice in the United States and around the world. These programs empower United Methodists to speak out for removing structures and systems that harm God's children globally. A special Peace with Justice offering envelope will be available in your Sunday bulletin on June 12. Thank you in advance for your contributions.

Two Rivers Readers Two Rivers Readers will meet at 10:00 a.m., Monday, June 13, in the back of the sanctuary. Dick Lee will lead our discussion of Anxious People, a book by Fredrik Backman. Please join us for a fun, insightful and challenging discussion. You may contact the church office with any questions.

Pentecost Sunday

Acts 2:1-21 (CEB)

When Pentecost Day arrived, they were all together in one place. Suddenly a sound from heaven like the howling of a fierce wind filled the entire house where they were sitting. They saw what seemed to be individual flames of fire alighting on each one of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages as the Spirit enabled them to speak.

There were pious Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. When they heard this sound, a crowd gathered. They were mystified because everyone heard them speaking in their native languages. They were surprised and amazed, saying, "Look, aren't all the people who are speaking Galileans, every one of them? How then can each of us hear them speaking in our native language? Parthians, Medes, and Elamites; as well as residents of Mesopotamia, Judea, and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the regions of Libya bordering Cyrene; and visitors from Rome (both Jews and converts to Judaism), Cretans and Arabs—we hear them declaring the mighty works of God in our own languages!" They were all surprised and bewildered. Some asked each other, "What does this mean?" Others jeered at them, saying, "They're full of new wine!"

Peter stood with the other eleven apostles. He raised his voice and declared, "Judeans and everyone living in Jerusalem! Know this! Listen carefully to my words! These people aren't drunk, as you suspect; after all, it's only nine o'clock in the morning! Rather, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

In the last days, God says,
I will pour out my Spirit on all people.
Your sons and daughters will prophesy.
Your young will see visions.
Your elders will dream dreams.
Even upon my servants, men and women,
I will pour out my Spirit in those days,
and they will prophesy.

I will cause wonders to occur in the heavens above
and signs on the earth below,
blood and fire and a cloud of smoke.
The sun will be changed into darkness,
and the moon will be changed into blood,
before the great and spectacular day of the Lord comes.
And everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.

Philippians 4:4-7 (CEB)

Be glad in the Lord always! Again I say, be glad! Let your gentleness show in your treatment of all people. The Lord is near. Don't be anxious about anything; rather, bring up all of your requests to God in your prayers and petitions, along with giving thanks. Then the peace of God that exceeds all understanding will keep your hearts and minds safe in Christ Jesus.

GATHERING OF THE PEOPLE

Prelude "Spirit of God, Descend upon My Heart" - arr. C. Moglebust

Greeting

Call to Worship

One: Christ is risen

All: Hallelujah

One: Christ is Risen

All: He is Risen indeed!

*Opening Hymn #539 "O Spirit of the Living God" vs. 1&4

*Prayer of Confession

All: Holy God, you disrupted the world with Resurrection. You robbed the Empire of its power and showed the world what love can do. Disrupt our lives with your grace. When we have fallen into patterns of sin, apathy, self-centeredness, or comfortable stagnation, disrupt our lives with forgiveness, power, and grace. Break through the darkness of our stubborn hearts and reveal to us the light of Christ. Show us the path of community, fellowship, and love.

(Pause for silent reflection and confession)

One: Just when it seemed that the story was over, that Jesus was dead, buried and forgotten, Christ disrupted the story with Resurrection. In the name of Jesus Christ, the Resurrected One, you are forgiven.

All: In the name of Jesus Christ, the Resurrected One, we are forgiven. Amen.

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
