CARING CONVERSATIONS or REFLECTIONS

- ◇ Thinking About This Week's Story: What are the transition moments in life that made you look back on what you accomplished? What are the races you have finished? What are the races you still run?
- ◇ Thinking about Next Week's Story: Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat is a fun musical about family disfunction. How did Jacob's life, trauma, and disfunction get handed down to his sons? How does family disfunction get handed down through generations?

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Gracious God, give me the strength to persevere through my race. Help me overcome the obstacles that are before me and guide me to a worthy finish line. Amen

A CHORUS LINE

A Chorus Line is a 1975 musical with music by Marvin Hamlisch, lyrics by Edward Kleban, and a book by James Kirkwood Jr. and Nicholas Dante.

Set on the bare stage of a Broadway theater, the musical is centered on seventeen Broadway dancers auditioning for spots on a chorus line. A Chorus Line provides a glimpse into the personalities of the performers and the choreographer, as they describe the events that have shaped their lives and their decisions to become dancers.

Hillary Erb has been a part of theater for 24 years and has graced the stage at The Spotlight Theater, Countryside Community Theater and Quad City Music Guild. Some of her favorite roles include Mrs. Wilkinson in Elliot, Bebe in A Chorus Line, Ariel in The Little Mermaid, Eve in Children of Eden and Rumpleteazer in Cats.

Outside of theater, Hillary teaches general music at Wilson Middle School. Hillary also performs with the Quad City Singers and Nova Singers. Hillary resides in Moline with her loving husband John, energetic daughter Hazel, and dog Rusko.
