CARING CONVERSATIONS or REFLECTIONS

- ◇ Thinking About This Week’s Story: Jonah resists the calling that God places on his life. He doesn’t want to go to Ninevah. What have you resisted from God? What might you be resisting right now?
- ◇ Thinking about Next Week’s Story: Big River is the story of Huckleberry Finn and Jim. It is a story of two people coming together, learning from one another, and discovering their mutual humanity. Has there been a person in your life you struggled with at first but grew to love as you go to know them?

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

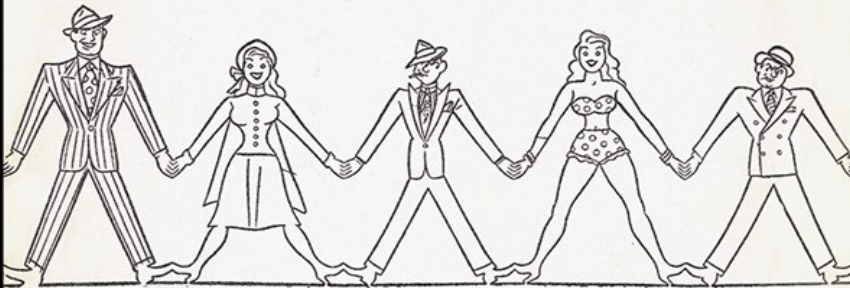

Gracious God, lead me on the right path and guide me. Help me to follow even when it is difficult. Give me the strength to do hard things that need to be done. Amen.

GUYS & DOLLS

A MUSICAL FABLE of BROADWAY

Guys and Dolls is a musical with music and lyrics by Frank Loesser and book by Jo Swerling and Abe Burrows based on stories of Damon Runyon. The show premiered on Broadway in 1950, where it ran for 1,200 performances and won the Tony Award for Best Musical. Guys and Dolls was selected as the winner of the 1951 Pulitzer Prize for Drama. In our scene, inveterate gambler Nicely Nicely has seen the error of his ways and is transformed through the works of the members of the Save-A-Soul Mission.

Andy Sederquist has been involved in the Quad City theater community for the last decade, with appearances at District Theater, Blackbox Theater, Playcrafters Barn Theater, and Quad City Music Guild, where he currently serves as treasurer. Recent notable performances include Quad City Music Guild's productions of Something Rotten (Shakespeare), Little Shop of Horrors (Seymour), West Side Story (Riff), Shrek (Pinocchio), and Urinetown (Bobby Strong). He is also a 10 year veteran of Quad City Singers. A 2012 graduate of the University of Illinois' engineering program, Andy currently works as a structural engineer in Bettendorf, IA. He currently resides in Sherrard, IL with his wife of 3 years, Callen.
