January sermon series: Jesus in Towns and Country

Starting January 12, there will be a new sermon series that focuses on Jesus in his Galilean ministry as told by the Gospel of Luke. This series will follow Jesus through the various towns and locations that Luke names. From the Jordan River of baptism through Nazareth, Capernaum, Bethany, Bethsaida, Nain, and Lake Gennesaret, we will see that the places that Jesus travels are important to the story. As he slowly reveals himself to be the Messiah in towns and the country throughout Galilee, we will come to a greater insight into the ministry of Jesus. This series will also give us a chance to trace the path of Martin Luther King, as we move from the King Service on Sunday, January 19 to the NAACP Community Day celebration at Grace City Church (across 5th Avenue) on February 23, we will also be reminded of the towns, marches, and movements of the civil rights movement and how justice movements are alive today.
